

CT State USBC Association Scholar of the Year

Charles Anderson

Charles Anderson is a student athlete who just graduated from Saint Bernard School in Uncasville, CT. He plans to attend the UCONN School of Engineering in the fall. Charles attained the rank of Eagle Scout at the age of 13. He is now an Assistant Scout Master with Troop 11. Heavily involved in extra curricular activities, Charles was involved in fencing and tennis throughout his four years of high school. His junior and senior year, he served as “squad captain” on the foil team. During his senior year, Charles served as captain for the tennis team. For the past three years, he has been involved in the drama department; stage managing 6 productions and working with the Improv club. He has played trombone since the third grade and was the first-chair trombonist in the Saint Bernard’s music department including pep and concert bands.

At the University of Connecticut, Charles plans to attain a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He would like to continue his hobbies of videography, auto-mechanic, Black/bladesmithing, rifle-shooting, and carpentry as well as continue to serve his community and remain physically active through sports.
