

CT State USBC Association Scholar of the Year

Elizabeth Rousseau

Elizabeth Rousseau is a graduating senior at Hall High School in West Hartford. Her grandfather, Ken Rousseau, has been bowling in leagues for many years. In high school, Elizabeth has taken numerous honors and advanced placement courses. She has been a Girl Scout since first grade. This summer she will be a cabin counselor at Camp Washington in Lakeside, CT. As an active member of her church, she has served as one of the leaders for their Acolyte program. This summer she will be one of the youth delegates to General Convention for the Episcopal Church in Connecticut. She will be attending Trinity College next year, and plans to study Economics and Public Policy and Law. She hopes to study abroad while at Trinity, considering a return to Spain where she has travelled as part of a summer exchange program with her school.
