

Connecticut State USBC Association 2020
Scholar of the Year Award
George Viebrock III

George Viebrock III lives in Bethel, CT. He will be attending Denison University this Fall and plans on majoring in economics. He hopes to fulfill his dream of playing college baseball.

His goal after college is to use his outstanding education to go on to enter the business world, more specifically get a job in a front office of a Major League baseball team.